* Ball Corporation's financial results for 2010 and 2009 are presented on both a GAAP and a non-GAAP (comparable) basis. Reported results were prepared in accordance with generally accepted U.S. accounting principles (GAAP). Non-GAAP (comparable) net earnings exclude items described in more detail in the accompanying notes to the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

Ball Corporation (NYSE: BLL) today reported third quarter net earnings from continuing operations of $222.2 million, or $2.44 per diluted share, on sales of $2 billion, compared to $108.9 million, or $1.14 cents per diluted share, on sales of $1.8 billion in the third quarter of 2009. On a comparable basis, Ball's third quarter results were net earnings of $127.7 million, or $1.40 per diluted share, compared to $115.0 million, or $1.21 per diluted share, in the third quarter of 2009.

Results from continuing operations for the first nine months of 2010 were net earnings of $449.2 million, or $4.84 per diluted share, on sales of $5.6 billion, compared to $310.4 million, or $3.27 per diluted share, on sales of $5 billion in the first nine months of 2009. On a comparable basis, Ball's year-to-date results were net earnings of $338.6 million, or $3.64 per diluted share, compared to $293.3 million, or $3.09 per diluted share, in 2009.

"On a comparable basis, our diluted earnings per share from continuing operations of $1.40 and $3.64 for the third quarter and year-to-date improved approximately 16 and 18 percent, respectively, over the same periods in 2009, continuing the company's strong performance in 2010," said R. David Hoover, chairman and chief executive officer. "Excellent operating performance within our various packaging businesses and strong program performance by our aerospace segment contributed to improved year-over-year results."

Third quarter results from continuing operations include a gain of $81.8 million, or 90 cents per diluted share, recorded in equity earnings on the company's ownership in Latapack-Ball Embalagens Ltda. (Latapack-Ball), a beverage can joint venture in Brazil, due to the consolidation of Latapack-Ball in the third quarter of 2010 as a result of the company's acquisition of an additional 10.1 percent economic interest in the joint venture. Latapack-Ball's results and all related purchase accounting effects are now included in the company's metal beverage, Americas and Asia, segment. Details of comparable segment earnings and business consolidation activities can be found in Notes 2 and 3 to the unaudited consolidated financial statements that accompany this news release.

"During the quarter, Ball completed the sale of the company's plastic packaging business, increased our investment in the growing Brazilian market, initiated the consolidation of our salmon can production capacity, acquired a metal packaging-related business to expand our product portfolio and was awarded significant new contracts in our aerospace business," said John A. Hayes, president and chief operating officer for the corporation. "The strategic actions taken by the company broadened our metal packaging profile and we continue to evaluate opportunities around the world."

Metal Beverage Packaging, Americas & Asia

Metal beverage packaging, Americas and Asia, segment comparable operating earnings were $112.8 million in the third quarter on sales of $1 billion, compared to $102.9 million on sales of $706.4 million in the third quarter of 2009. For the first nine months, comparable segment operating earnings were $301.3 million on sales of $2.8 billion, compared to $223.9 million on sales of $2.1 billion during the same period in 2009.

During the quarter, Ball acquired an additional 10.1 percent economic interest in Latapack-Ball that increased Ball's overall economic interest in the joint venture to 60.1 percent. Continued strong volumes in China and Brazil and increased demand for specialty cans in North America benefited segment results, while certain one-time costs and the impacts of consolidating Latapack-Ball reduced margins. Ball announced in October plans to install a second production line in North America to make Alumi-Tek® bottles. Ball's Golden, Colo., manufacturing plant is expected to begin making the fully reclosable and recyclable bottles in the second half of 2011.

Metal Beverage Packaging, Europe

Metal beverage packaging, Europe, segment results in the quarter were operating earnings of $63.1 million on sales of $442.3 million, compared to $68.8 million on sales of $478 million in 2009. Results for the first nine months were operating earnings of $170.6 million on sales of $1.3 billion, compared to $164.5 million on sales of $1.3 billion in 2009. Effective cost controls, continued focus on balancing supply with demand and improved volumes were more than offset by a 10 percent decline in currency translation in the quarter. The recovery of the German beverage can market continues to progress.

Metal Food & Household Products Packaging, Americas

Metal food and household products packaging, Americas, segment comparable results in the third quarter were operating earnings of $49.4 million on sales of $420.1 million, compared to $27.8 million in 2009 on sales of $459.5 million. Year-to-date results were operating earnings of $104.5 million on sales of $1 billion, compared to $112.5 million in 2009 on sales of $1.1 billion. Strong aerosol volumes and excellent operating performance in the quarter were partially offset by an early end to the fruit and vegetable pack in the Midwest.

Ball announced in September plans to consolidate the company's salmon can production and close a plant in Richmond, British Columbia, by the end of the first quarter of 2011. After the final disposition of the land and building, the closure is expected to be cash positive by approximately $8 million. Also during the third quarter, the company successfully completed the acquisition of Neuman Aluminum, the largest North American producer of aluminum slugs used to make extruded aerosol cans, beverage bottles, aluminum collapsible tubes and technical impact extrusions.

Aerospace and Technologies

Aerospace and technologies segment results were operating earnings of $18.4 million on sales of $167.9 million in the third quarter, compared to $16.2 million on sales of $168.4 million in 2009. For the first nine months, operating earnings were $50.5 million on sales of $513.1 million compared to $45.6 million on sales of $528 million during the same period last year. Strong program performance and program completion awards contributed to improved results. Backlog at the end of the quarter was $852 million.

During the third quarter, Ball Aerospace was selected to build WorldView-3, the next generation commercial remote-sensing satellite for DigitalGlobe, and was awarded a contract by NASA for the first Joint Polar Satellite System (JPSS-1) satellite. Procured by NASA's Goddard Spaceflight Center on behalf of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, JPSS-1 will ensure continuity of vital climate and weather data records. In September, the Space Based Space Surveillance satellite, built by Ball Aerospace for the U.S. Air Force, launched successfully and initial tests indicate it is functioning as expected.

Outlook

"The company's balance sheet continues to strengthen, and excluding the impact of a previously disclosed accounting change we now expect full-year free cash flow to be at least $500 million," said Scott C. Morrison, senior vice president and chief financial officer. "We are also executing on our plan to repurchase more than $400 million of our stock in 2010."

"Ball Corporation is building significant momentum in 2010, which we expect to continue in 2011 and result in further improved performance," Hoover said. "We believe our comparable second half performance from continuing operations should exceed that of the first half of 2010. The numerous strategic actions we have taken in 2010, the overall increase in demand globally for our products, our focus on balancing supply with demand and our successful execution on disciplined growth opportunities make us optimistic about Ball's future."

Ball Corporation is a supplier of high-quality packaging for beverage, food and household products customers, and of aerospace and other technologies and services, primarily for the U.S. government. Ball Corporation and its subsidiaries employ more than 14,000 people worldwide and reported 2009 sales of more than $7.3 billion including discontinued operations. Notes to Condensed Financials (September 2010)

1. Changes in Presentation for Discontinued Operations

During August 2010, the company completed the sale of its plastic packaging, Americas, business to Amcor Limited for approximately $265 million in cash and $15 million in contingent consideration, subject to closing adjustments. The sale of Ball's plastic packaging business included five U.S. plants that manufacture polyethylene terephthalate (PET) bottles and preforms and polypropylene bottles, as well as associated customer contracts and other related assets. In accordance with the accounting guidance for discontinued operations, the company's consolidated financial statements have been retrospectively adjusted to reflect the pending sale of the operations and the change in the company's reportable segments. Additionally, according to the accounting guidance for discontinued operations, $0.3 million and $1.5 million of indirect costs previously allocated to the plastic packaging, Americas, segment have been included in undistributed corporate costs for the three and nine months ended September 26, 2010, respectively; and $0.8 million and $2.5 million have been included for the three and nine months ended September 27, 2009, respectively. Further details of the sale are included in Note 3.

3. Business Consolidation Activities and Other Items

During August 2010, the company paid $46.2 million to acquire an additional 10.1 percent economic interest in its Brazilian beverage packaging joint venture, Latapack-Ball Embalagens Ltda. (Latapack-Ball), through a transaction with the joint venture partner Latapack S.A., which increased the company's economic interest in the joint venture to 60.1 percent. As a result of the transaction Latapack-Ball became a variable interest entity (VIE) under consolidation accounting guidelines with Ball identified as the primary beneficiary of the VIE and consolidating the joint venture. Latapack-Ball operates metal beverage packaging manufacturing plants in Tres Rios, Jacarei and Salvador, Brazil, and is reported as part of the metal beverage packaging, Americas and Asia segment. In the consolidation of Latapack-Ball, the company recognized a $81.8 million gain on its previously held equity investment in Latapack-Ball.

As discussed in Note 1, in August 2010, the company completed the sale of its plastic packaging, Americas, business. In connection with the sale, the company has reported discontinued operations as summarized in the following table.

($ in millions)	Three months ended		Nine months ended
	September 26, 2010	September 27, 2009	September 26, 2010	September 27, 2009
Net sales	$ 55.3	$ 156.8	$ 318.5	$ 498.1
Earnings from operations	$ 1.9	$ 4.6	$ 3.3	$ 17.7

Impairment loss	-	-	(107.1)	-
Business consolidation activities	(2.8)	(12.6)	(10.1)	(24.5)
Tax benefit	(3.7)	2.8	30.6	2.9
Discontinued operations, net of tax	$ 5.3	$ (5.2)	$ (73.4)	$ (3.9)

Earnings of $17.8 million ($14.5 million after tax) were recorded in the third quarter of 2010 due to the reversal of a pension settlement liability. The earnings were offset by a charge of $4.6 million ($2.8 million after tax) for the closure of a plant in Canada. The third quarter of 2010 also included other individually insignificant costs of $1.6 million ($1.0 million after tax).

Earnings of $0.5 million ($0.3 million after tax) and $0.8 million ($0.5 million after tax) were recorded in the first and second quarters of 2010, respectively, to reflect individually insignificant costs and gains primarily related to previously announced plant closures. In addition, the second quarter of 2010 included a charge of $3.1 million ($1.9 million after tax) to establish a reserve associated with an environmental matter at a previously owned facility.

In April 2010, Ball redeemed senior notes due December 2012, which resulted in a charge of $8.1 million ($4.9 million after tax) for the related call premium and write-off of unamortized financing costs and unamortized premiums.

In June 2010, the company acquired Guangdong Jianlibao Group Co., Ltd's (Jianlibao) 65-percent interest in a joint venture metal beverage can and end plant in Sanshui, PRC. Ball has owned 35 percent of the joint venture plant since 1992. Ball acquired the plant and related assets for $86.9 million in cash (net of cash acquired) and assumed debt and also entered into a long-term supply agreement with Jianlibao and one of its affiliates. As a result of the required purchase accounting, the company recorded a gain in equity earnings of $24.1 million.

In the first quarter, a restructuring charge of $5 million ($3.1 million after tax) was recorded for accelerated depreciation in connection with the closure of a North American metal beverage plant. In the second quarter, restructuring charges of $4.3 million ($2.6 million after tax) were recorded for administrative downsizing in our North American metal beverage business and clean-up costs related to previously closed and sold facilities. In the third quarter, a charge of $1.0 million ($0.6 million after tax) was recorded related to winding down the closure of two North American metal beverage plants. In addition, charges of $9.1 million ($5.5 million after tax) and $2.9 million ($1.8 million after tax) were recorded in the third quarter and second quarter, respectively, for transaction costs related to an acquisition that was finalized in the fourth quarter.

Also during the second quarter of 2009, the company sold a portion of its interest in DigitalGlobe for proceeds of approximately $37 million. As a result of this transaction, a gain of $34.8 million ($30.7 million after tax) was recorded in corporate costs.
